Interchurch Baseball Honorary Chairman

REV. SAMUEL J. FAYAD

The most Rev. Fr. Samuel J. Fayad has accepted the request by the Agawam Interchurch Baseball League governing board to fill in the roll of honorary chairman at its eight annual banquet. The banquet is to be held at the Agawam High School Nov. 10th.

Fr. Fayad who has been rector at St. Anthony of Padua Church for the past two years hails his Church team as national Division Champs.

Prior to taking his post as rector at St. Anthony's Fr. Fayad was director of the foreign mission board at the Provincial House in Springfield.

The banquet this year as in past will be honoring many individual players, including the leagues most valuable, and the most valuable player from each team. The playoff trophy, the Father O'Keefe award, is also to be presented to the Divisional playoff champs.

The banquet also has the purpose to present to players who have played with the league and gone on to school $100 scholarships. This year a record in the leagues eight years of 5-$100 scholarships are to be presented.

Master of ceremonies for the banquet will be the perennial Mr. Julio Alvigini.

Women's Club Will Hold Fashion Show Monday

Clothes for all occasions will be featured in a Fashion Show to be presented by the Catholic Women's Club of Agawam at their meeting in St. John the Evangelist Church Parish Hall, Monday evening, Oct. 21st at 8:30.

A traveling collection of Fall and Winter fashions is a loan service made available by the National Cotton Council and McCall's Patterns. It is offered as a demonstration of the versatility in home sewing, and as information on the latest trends in fabric and pattern styling. The wardrobe, made by seamstresses in Memphis, Tenn., includes casual clothes, tailored suits and coats, late day dresses and children's wear.

Mrs. Joseph Hamel, program chairman, has selected Mrs. Roland Filiault as commentator and Mrs. Thomas Doyle as accompanist. Several club members and their daughters will act as models.

Mrs. J. Clinton Wright and Mrs. Adwilda Corriveau are co-chairmen of hospitality and will (Please Turn To Page 2)

Late Evening Specialty

Sunday suppers—especially on cold winter evenings—should be “something special.” Be continental and present French Toast Supper Sandwiches, the newest, most luscious invention since French Toast.

The sandwiches, dipped in egg batter, are a triple-layered treat of tart-sweet pineapple preserves, ham slices and Swiss cheese.
You'll like them so well that you might even feature the French Toast Supper Sandwiches at your next after-theater or midnight supper.

French Toast Supper Sandwiches

12 slices white bread	1/2 cup milk
1 (12-ounce) jar pineapple	8 eggs, beaten
preserves	1/4 teaspoon salt
6 slices boiled ham	2 tablespoons butter or
6 slices natural Swiss cheese	margarine

Spread six slices of bread with preserves; top each with a slice of ham and Swiss cheese. Combine milk, eggs and salt. Dip bottom side of sandwich stacks in egg mixture; place in hot skillet, greased with butter and fry until golden brown. Dip one side of remaining six bread slices in egg mixture and place egg-side-up on the sandwiches. Turn sandwiches and brown second side. Serve hot.

Volkswagen Sales Hit All-Time Record

BOSTON — Sales of new Volkswagens in five New England states for the first nine months of this year set an all-time record with 21,860 cars delivered, a 26 percent increase over 1967
sales for the same period.

“For the first nine months of this year, a total of 497,255 vehicles have been delivered by dealers nationally, a 33.6 percent increase over last year's figure. On this basis, Volkswagen expects to sell about 550,000 vehicles in the United States during 1968.”

Nationally, the Volkswagen organization now includes more than 1,050 independent dealers who have invested a total of about $300,000,000 in what is widely recognized as the automobile industry's most modern sales and service network.

Cold Weather Fraud

From Attorney General
Elliot Richardson

The cold weather is almost with us again, and so, unfortunately, is an all-too-common cold weather fraud. Widows and women living alone are the most frequent victims of this scheme, but, as the Consumer Protection Division's records show, anyone can be victimized.

The fraud entails a scheme to frighten people into believing that their lives are in danger due to faulty furnaces and plays on all the emotions of the victim is involved. Here is how it works:

Mrs. Jones, a woman in her mid-sixties, is sitting in her house on a fall afternoon, when she hears a knock at her door. Opening it, she finds a very personable young man, whom we'll call Mr. Con, standing before her. Mr. Con represents himself as an employee of the "XYZ Furnace Inspection Service" and says that he has come to inspect her furnace.

He then goes down to the cellar and attaches an impressive-looking machine to various parts of the furnace. His expression changes from one of interest in his work, to one of concern, and then finally to a look of horror.

"Mrs. Jones," he says, "you shouldn't spend another night in this house. In fact, it's a miracle this rusty old thing hasn't blown up already. Why the temperature in there is over 600 degrees!"

Having a furnace "ready to blow up" in one's house would certainly be disturbing to anyone. Naturally Mrs. Jones is concerned and asks what she should do. Mr. Con has the answer. He just happens to know someone in the furnace repair business who can install a "corrective baffle" that very day, if she can pay $1000 in cash.

If Mrs. Jones shows hesitancy or reluctance, or balks at the proposition Mr. Con may try theatrics. "You remind me of my mother," he says. "I'd be frightened to death if she lived in this house. For my peace of mind, won't you have it repaired today?" In many cases, Mr. Con will even drive the lady to the bank to be helpful.

His next step is either to skip town as soon as the money is in hand, or to install a useless, or even harmful, piece of copper tubing and then skip town.

That is just how the sleazy operators work in this racket. Now it is of course wise to be sure that your heating system is in good working order, and to contact any of the reputable companies in the field for this purpose.

The moral of this story is:

(1) Watch out for people who sell furnace repairs on a door-to-door basis. It is not common practice for companies to seek business this way. If the local fire department is checking on heating systems its representatives are clearly identifiable by their uniform, identification, and official vehicle.

(2) Once a bogus furnace repair man gets in your cellar, he may purposely damage your furnace to make repairs necessary.

ATTORNEY-GENERAL

(3) If you suspect something is out of line, call your local police immediately, then inform the Better Business Bureau or Chamber of Commerce, and be sure to get identification of the person, such as his license plate number. Please refer suspicions of fraud to: Attorney General Elliot Richardson, Consumer Protection Division, State House, Boston, 02133.

Junior Grange 105 Installs Officers

Community Junior Grange 105 held an open meeting on Saturday, Oct. 5 at which time Past Master, Douglas Favreau, installed the officers for the year 1968-1969. He was assisted by Peter Meyer, marshal, and Mrs. Elise Bradway, pianist. The following members assumed office: Theresa Marquis, master; Adela Demko, overseer; James Marquis, assistant steward; Deborah Meyer, chaplain; Pauline Sosnowich, secretary; Marion White, gate keeper; Kathleen Marquis, cures; Elizabeth Sosnowich, lady assistant steward; and Mr. Earl C. Bradway, patron.

Project rules and regulations for all state and national contests were distributed. These entries from all members are due at the next meeting, on Saturday, Oct. 19. Delegates to the State Session, meeting in Springfield, Oct. 25 will be Theresa Marquis, Adela Demko, and Pauline Sosnowich. They will participate in the Junior Grange meeting at that time.

Refreshments were served by the Misses Elizabeth and Pauline Sosnowich assisted by Mrs. Earl Cesan, honorary member.

U.S. Navy — On The Move

NAVY DAY 1968. Navy Day is Sunday, October 27th and will be celebrated throughout the United States and overseas from October 22nd through October 29th. The theme this year is "U. S. NAVY—ON THE MOVE" in honor of the men and women who serve everywhere for us. The Navy League's some 300 councils in the continental United States, Guam, Honolulu, Hilo, Spain, England, Brazil, Panama, Puerto Rico, St. Croix, St. Thomas, Alaska and Mexico City will celebrate by having luncheons, banquets, public meetings, church services, in addition to many other appropriate events in their local communities. This year the Naval Reserve Association again joins the Navy League in sponsoring "Navy Sabbath Weekend" with church services all over America on October 25, 26 and 27. Additionally, other fraternal, civic and veterans organizations will join in the week long celebrations. The Navy League is proud to sponsor Navy Day each year and especially in 1968 is looking forward to honoring the men and women in service. The theme "U. S. NAVY—ON THE MOVE" presents the opportunity for every American citizen to do just that. For the men in service is a man, doing a man's job for us, serving God and country. Be proud of him. This is what the Navy League of the United States is all about.

Fontana Names Sullivan His Campaign Coordinator

Atty. Raymond J. Fontana of Springfield, candidate for reelection as Governor's Councilor from the 8th District, today announced that Selectman Richard S. Sullivan of West Springfield is serving as his campaign coordinator for Hampden County.

Atty. Fontana's 8th District includes all of Western Massachusetts. "I am delighted to be associated with Governor's Councilor Fontana in his campaign for reelection," Mr. Sullivan said. "He has been an active and effective member of the Governor's Council during his first term. He has served the office with dignity and he has been aware of the problems and needs of the people of the 8th Councillor District. He is the kind of man Western Massachusetts needs in Boston." Selectman Sullivan was born in Holyoke, and has lived in West Springfield since 1941.

He is a graduate of West Springfield High School, served in the U. S. Army, and attended American International College in Springfield.

He is vice-president and general manager of the Sullivan Paper Co. in West Springfield.

Mr. Sullivan has been a West Springfield selectman for six years and previously was a member of the West Springfield finance committee, serving as chairman for two of his three years on the committee.

Zundell Proposes Financial Assistance For Forest Park

Longmeadow Selectman Clifford M. Zundell, candidate for Hampden County Commissioner, said today he believes the growing financial burden of Springfield's Forest Park could benefit from "an imaginative appraisal" of the situation by the Hampden County Commission.

"In recent years Springfield city officials have spoken more often of the increasing cost of operating Forest Park, and just recently we read of a proposal for an admission charge to one area of the park," Mr. Zundell said.

He continued:

"Forest Park is one of the finest recreational resources in this area.

"It may be reasonably assumed that Forest Park is, from the point of view of usage and enjoyment, more than just a city park. The people who visit Forest Park come from the surrounding communities, and even from other states.

"Forest Park may be described as a regional recreation facility, much as is the Mount Tom Reservation, where the Hampden County Commission last year spent $43,000 in its joint supervision of the reservation with Hampshire County.

"I don't know that Springfield could look to the other cities and towns for actual financial assistance in the operation of Forest Park, but I do believe that the Hampden County Commission could coordinate and stimulate an attitude of regional interest which might lead to a sharing of the financial burden that is now borne by Springfield alone.

"This would be a new area of endeavor for the commission, but I think this is a need. The Hampden County Commission must make itself a more effective force, and I will if elected work toward this goal."

Rev. Emerson Smith To Address 'Y'

Annual Meeting

Mario Sakellis, Executive Director of the Agawam YMCA, announces that Rev. Emerson Smith, Executive Director of the Council of Churches of Greater Springfield will be the guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Agawam Board of Directors on Sunday evening, Oct. 29th.

The meeting will be held at Betty's Towne House starting at 6. Reservations are now being accepted at the local "Y" office.

Swiss To Test Meatless Meat

Zurich

An American-made meat substitute goes on experimental sale in Switzerland's largest supermarket chain next weekend.

The "meat" known as Textured Vegetable Protein (TVP) is basically made of protein-rich soy flour.

The Migros Cooperative supermarket group said it would be sold in 100-gram—3.5 ounces—dried sachets which can be boiled into a paste weighing three times as much. The experimental portions will cost one franc — 23 cents.

The paste can be "shaped" according to taste and roasted or grilled like meat.

LT. CARL MYLLYMAKI

Carl W. Myllymaki, 3rd, a 25-year-old first lieutenant and company officer with the Third Marine Division, died in Vietnam on Oct. 2nd, as the result of hostile action, just ten days prior to the end of his tour of duty.

Lt. Myllymaki, husband of Mrs. Janet (DeMont) of 90 Albert St., Agawam, to whom he has been married for nearly two years, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Myllymaki, Jr., of 66 Summer St., Westerly, R. I.

Word of the tragic death was carried to Agawam Saturday afternoon by two Marines to inform the young widow, who was visiting with her in-laws, and received notification there.

He graduated from Westerly High School and the University of Rhode Island in 1965. He received his master of science degree with honors in physical education from Springfield, Mass., College in 1966.

World Book Lore

The bagpipe may be the national instrument of Scotland, but the Scots don't have a monopoly on it. People in Ireland and in parts of France, India, and Spain play the bagpipe too, and a form of the bagpipe was played by the ancient Romans.

Refreshing Pineapple Pie

Great for Fall is this angel food type pie cooked on top of the stove and turned into a no-bake crumb crust. It is best served on the day it is prepared.

Pineapple Pie

- 1 no-bake (9-inch) crumb crust
- 2 tablespoons corn starch
- 1/2 cup sugar
- Dash salt
- 1 cup water
- 1 (8 3/4-ounce) can crushed pineapple, drained
- 3 egg whites
- 1/3 cup chopped nuts

Combine corn starch, sugar and salt in small saucepan. Gradually add water, stirring until smooth. Stirring constantly, bring to boil over medium heat and boil 1 minute. Cover with plastic film or waxed paper laid directly on surface of pudding. Cool. Stir in pineapple. Beat egg whites until stiff peaks form when beater is raised. Gently fold in cooled pineapple mixture. Fill into prepared crust. Sprinkle with chopped nuts. Chill. Makes one 9-inch pie.

AGAWAM LODGE

No. 1935

CHANGE OF ADDRESS FOR HALLOWEEN PARTY. Unfortunately our new lodge will not be ready as hoped for our party on Sunday October 27th. All children of the Moose 12 years and under will have plenty of games to help celebrate at ST. THERESA'S HALL CORNER OF BRIDGE AND CHURCH STS. NORTH AGAWAM. Safety Officer Harold Burnett will be on hand with a short film on safety. With it getting dark early now we hope to impress on the children the need to be careful when out trick or treating. PROTECT OUR CHILDREN is uppermost in all Moose members minds and I'm sure all the brothers will be extra careful Halloween night.

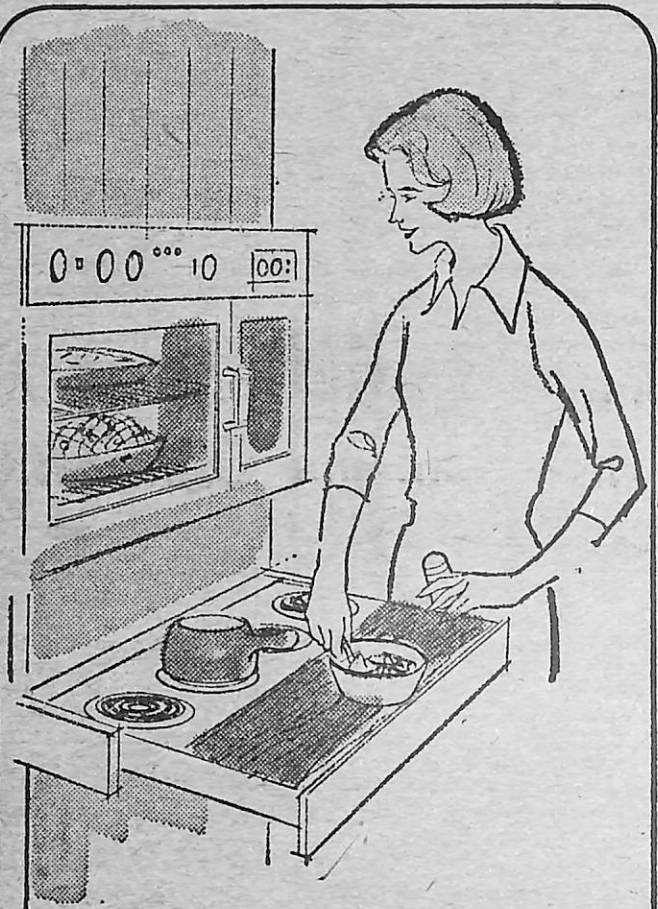

A conservation clinic was held in Worcester last Sunday, October 6th. Frank Smith and Walt Kane attended from Agawam Lodge. Many good ideas were given and will be brought to the attention of all the brothers at the next general meeting. There are still a lot of repairs needed to bring the Old Agawam Cafe into the New Agawam Moose Lodge and all and any help is needed. The sooner its finished the sooner we can move in. How about and hour or two?

October has a very important date for the Moose. October 27th is the birthday of James J. Davis, First Director General of the Loyal Order of the Moose. He was also the founder of Mooseheart in 1913. Nearly 6000 boys and girls who have lost one or both of their parents have been fed, clothed, and educated on Mooseheart's campus. We will continue with notes of Mooseheart next week.

SPORTSMEN'S CORNER

By BILL CHIBA

Mike Losito, Felix Losito, John Tangredi and Ernie Lombardi returned from Kenore, Ontario, with part of the licenses filled. All four reside in Agawam.

Mike filled his dream of downing a large black bear with the bow and arrow. He knocked over a 250 bruin at seven yards. The arrow penetrated 27" into the beast. The animal traveled a short distance and dropped dead at Ernie Lombardi's feet. To say that Ernie was flabbergasted is to put it mildly.

Felix scored a small bear and a deer with the rifle. Ernie and John returned home empty handed.

CARS FOUND

After months of investigations, persistent police officers recently broke up a major burglar ring in Nashville, Tenn., with the help of fishing equipment. From questioning four prime suspects, the officers learned that two safes and a stolen panel truck needed as evidence lay at the bottom of the Cumberland River.

Deep and muddy, the Cumberland is a big area to search. For two days the police dragged the waters without results. Divers couldn't find the truck.

Then the investigating officer heard about a miniature sonar device called the Fish LO-K-TOR. Made for anglers in search of trophies, the electronic equipment is highly sensitive. Used from a boat the Fish LO-K-TOR reveals the presence of underwater objects. For Nashville police it quickly pin-pointed the exact location of the missing panel truck.

The truck containing the missing safes was pulled from the river by a wrecker with all the evidence needed to wrap up the case.

CROSSBOW ILLEGAL

The Vermont Fish and Game Dept., is concerned about the significant number of mechanical crossbows recently sold in the state. The dept. hopes that the buyers plans only to use them on basement target ranges. It also hopes that these purchases did not result from the seller recommending the weapon for hunting use.

Only a conventional free-strung bow, sometimes referred to as a long bow, with a long arrow may be used for hunting. Big game hunting with the bow requires a broadhead point on the arrow with at least two sharp cutting edges not less than 7-8" in width. For the special archery deer season when either sex may be taken, a bow hunting permit is required in addition to the regular hunting license. No firearms may be carried by the bowhunter during the special season.

LUCKY ONES

Winners at the West Springfield Fish & Game Club Turkey shoot last Sunday were Fred Barber, Leona Flannery, Steve Allen (won two) Ken Elkas, Bob Warnock, Ray Vanotti, Bob Shaw, Phil Nicholls, Don Roy, Nick Rosati, Curt Nowill and winner of the Junior shoot was Keith Nowill. Be there next Sunday and win a turkey for your table—starting time 1 p.m.

LETTING 'EM OFF EASY

It's difficult to condemn any man who deliberately releases some of his catch. But, too frequently, the end result is the same as if these particular fish had been kept for the skillet.

"Good intentions" in releasing fish are not enough, say the fishing authorities at Mercury outboards.

Knowing how and when are equally important.

Fish should never be freed after being deep- or foul-hooked in such a manner that serious wounds result. As a rule, the use of bait causes most incidents of deeply imbedded hooks that cannot be extracted without inflicting injuries to vital organs.

Even hooks that are down in the gullet can be removed without damage, provided the angler exercises care and uses a hook disgorger. A pair of long-nosed pliers, common in many tackle boxes, will usually do the trick. When such pliers are not carried, a disgorger is mandatory.

An efficient disgorger can be made from a strip of metal or plastic with a vee-shaped notch cut in the end. A hacksaw blade works well, and an old toothbrush handle is equally effective.

To use the disgorger, simply slip the notch into the bend of the hook, push down and back.

Opinion is divided over whether one's hands should be wet or dry when grasping fish. Regardless of the school of thought to which you subscribe, always handle the fish gently, being careful to avoid excessive squeezing or scraping.

Some species, note Mercury lads, are less susceptible to rough treatment than others. Trout are relatively tender; bass bruise less easily.

Regardless of the fish involved, if you intend to release him, make certain he has a good chance of recovering.

Japanese Firm Has Transistorized Color Television

Tokyo

Japan's Hitachi Ltd. says it now is able to produce what it says the world's first all-transistor color television set.

It said the new sets consumed less electricity, had fewer maintenance models with vacuum tubes. The new model, with a 15-inch screen, appeared for the first time at an electronic show here.

The company said it also had plans to apply integrated circuit systems to color television, which would allow them to produce even smaller sets.

The United States market was a prime target for the new set, the company said. A price has not been decided.

Safe Driving Tips

PICK SAFE HIGHWAYS. On your next motor trip, if you have an alternate route, pick the divided highway protected by a tough steel median barrier to prevent cross-over head-on collisions. Such accidents cause 16.7 percent of all highway fatalities, have been responsible for 120,000 deaths in the last two decades. Divided highways with protected medians are three times safer than ordinary roads.

FASTEN YOUR SEAT BELT. Last year, 8,000 persons who lost their lives in highway accidents would be alive today had they worn seat belts, says the National Safety Council. Another 2,000 motorists who were in serious accidents in which they might otherwise have been killed, are alive today because they were wearing their seat belts when the accidents occurred.

"DEFENSIVE DRIVING," are watchwords of the National Safety Council. This meaning is simple: drive your car as well as you can, but leave a margin of safety between you and the driver in the next car. He may do the unexpected. Be prepared for it.

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

Q. I just hired my first maid and I understand that her work is covered by social security. How can I report her wages?

A. If you or your husband operate a business, you may add this employee to the business quarterly return, adding the word "maid" next to her name. Should you not have a business or prefer not to report the maid on that return, write a letter to the Internal Revenue Service of the Social Security Administration. You will be placed on a mailing list and a form will be mailed to you at the end of each quarter which will remind you to make your report and provide a simple means by which you may do so.

Q. I pay my maid $30 per week. I know I have to take out social security tax for her but must I also take out income tax?

A. No. Income tax is not withheld from domestic or farm employees by the employer.

Q. I've heard that I may make $1680 a year and still receive my social security benefits. Does this mean if I make $1690 I will lose my benefits for the entire year?

A. No. As you said, you receive all your benefits if you earn $1680 or less. If you earn between $1680 and $2880, we will withhold $1 in benefits for each $2 that you earn. Above $2880 we withhold $1 for each $1 you earn. For example, if you receive $1200 a year from social security and earn $2480 we will hold back $300 of your benefits.

Q. I try to limit my earnings to $1680 a year so that I will receive all my checks. Do you count my gross wages or my take-home pay?

A. We consider your gross wages.

The Springfield Social Security Administration district office is still searching for disabled persons who can become entitled to monthly disability payments because of the 1967 amendments to the Social Security Act. Some of these newly eligible individuals will be reached through contact with welfare agencies and employers, Daniel J. Murphy, Jr., security district manager in Springfield, Mass., noted, but most will learn of their eligibility through radio, TV and news articles such as this.

These changes effect two categories of persons—severely disabled widows between 50 and 60 years of age and young workers totally disabled under the age of 31.

For a severely disabled widow who is between 50 and 60 the changes provide for reduced monthly payments. The disability must have begun before her husband's death or within 7 years of his death, or as in the case of the widowed mother, before or within 7 years after the end of her entitlement to mother's benefits. A disabled widower is eligible under similar conditions, except that he must have been dependent on his wife for support.

In the case of a worker who became disabled before age 31, fewer work credits are now required than formerly. Under the new provisions, a worker who became disabled before age 31 needs work credits for half the time from age 21 to the time his disability began, with a minimum work requirement of one and one-half years. If disabled before age 24, he must have worked in half of the 12 quarters ending with the quarter of disablement.

Applications for these benefits should be filed with the social security office at 145 State Street in Springfield, Mass., 01103. Office hours are 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Friday. In addition, the District Office is open until 8 p.m. every Thursday.

A & P To Test Credit Cards

New York
The Great Atlantic & Pacific Tea Company, the nation's biggest supermarket chain, says it would test the use of credit cards in its A&P stores.

Dean Potts, A&P comptroller, said the test would begin Sept. 23 in six stores in Ohio and West Virginia.

The credit cards are being sold to A&P by Roberts Enterprises, a credit-card concern with headquarters in Wheeling, W. Va.

The Roberts credit cards will permit customers to charge between $200 and $2,000 worth of merchandise without requiring supermarket operators to verify the card.

ANTISOCIAL BEHAVIOR TRACED TO ACNE

BY LILIS F. ALTSCHULER, M.D.

University of Cincinnati, College of Medicine

Acne affects more than 75 per cent of American youth, most of whom endure it with fortitude. For others, acne may have far-reaching, damaging psychological effects. Parents who consider acne a necessary part of the growing-up process, and dismiss it as such, may be doing teenagers an injustice.

In Cincinnati Juvenile Court, with which I have been affiliated for a number of years, we have found that acne can contribute to truancy and to other antisocial behavior, including sex delinquency.

Youthful offenders who have physical defects, including acne, are referred to our clinic for medical evaluation and treatment. Ours is a team approach in which other agencies of the court, concerned chiefly with behavior, also participate.

A 15-year-old youngster who was referred to us after being apprehended for shoplifting and truancy was noted to have a severe case of acne. It was suspected that this might be the primary cause of his failure to attend school regularly.

Another, a 14-year-old girl, was referred after being arrested as a sex delinquent. It was felt that feelings of anxiety and inferiority over her severe skin condition made her willing to pay too great a price for popularity, and that this was an important factor in her delinquent behavior.

Both of these youngsters were given careful instructions on how to cleanse their skin two or three times a day with pHisoHex, an antibacterial skin cleanser, followed by the use of a tinted cream to dry and peel blemishes, and to cover them. Other medication was prescribed when indicated. Each youngster was encouraged to follow the procedure faithfully. Follow-up visits helped.

The behavior of both improved along with their skin conditions. The young man began to attend school more regularly. The girl was graduated from high school and was able to hold a responsible job.

Although only a small percentage of teenagers with acne end up in juvenile courts, it is clear that this condition should be taken seriously, and that a physician should be consulted and treatment prescribed.

PEOPLE and POLITICIANS

Four men marched into the primary campaign, and after the "dust of battle" had settled, significant facts emerged along with the remaining two.

The vote during the primary was much more than what is usually cast, with over 800 in one contest and about 2600 in the other.

Of the four candidates seeking the office, three were united in opposition to the fourth.

Walter Kerr, seeking election after a short two years in office was that fourth man.

When you add up his opposition vote, which came to over 2,000, it revealed the lack of appeal that Walter Kerr had in our district which has 1375 votes.

It did not look like the people of Agawam and West Springfield wanted Mr. Kerr in office again.

This is Les Moore again, and pleased as I am to have been selected as the Republican candidate for the State Representative, 9th Hampden district, I sympathize with those majority voters who do not look to Mr. Kerr for leadership.

The cause has not been lost, for I will be a candidate for all of the people, and believe that on election day, the best place for the majority of those votes is next to my name.

I have had several articles printed that have spelled out a position on what I believe to be the concern of the voters in the 9th district.

Since then, other matters of concern have been brought to my attention by Agawam residents.

I will go into detail on these matters by means of articles in the paper and at public meetings that we plan to arrange.

LESLIE J. MOORE

The great need is to join together the wishes and needs of the people in the 9th Hampden district, with a candidate who understands and skillfully gets results. Such a union will bring real victory on November 5th.

There is a lot of room under the umbrella of victory, and all are welcome to share it.

"The quickest way to get a lot of undivided attention is to make a mistake."

V.F.W. Post 1632 and Auxiliary Bulletin

By ANNA D. BISSONNETTE

COMMANDER PRAISES QUARTERMASTER

At the Oct. 7th meeting held at the Post Home, District Seven (7) Commander Robert Archambault praised Quartermaster Bissonnette for the fine job he has done on the monthly reports. He said, "That in all his years in the Veterans of Foreign Wars, NEVER has he heard more complete and accurate reports." And he told Commander Harpin of Agawam "Don't lose that man. He's doing a 'wonderful job on those books and records.'" Commander Archambault has been a guest at the Post's last two meetings.

MEMBERSHIP

A beautiful perpetual charter will be awarded to any Veterans of Foreign Wars having a total of twenty-five (25) or more "Life Members". "Wives, Mothers, Sisters, Step-sisters, and Daughters," said QM Bissonnette "these make the best birthday and Christmas gifts to the men in your lives. Professional men should be much interested in this theme. Ask how a life membership can help you. Just imagine, you will never forget to pay your dues and even if you move to another part of the country you'll be welcomed as a transfer member. See how little it actually will cost YOU." Please send in YOUR dues as we would like to make it 100% by November — We now have 35% of the 1968 membership in for 1969. Keep up the good work."

FROM THE COMMANDER

At this same meeting Commander Harpin filled his HOUSE COMMITTEE AND BOARD OF DIRECTORS. President — Roland Ruelle; Vice-President — Edward Harpin; Treasurer — Wilfred H. Bissonnette; Secretary — Adolf Netkovich; and the Board consists of the four listed above plus Past Commander Raymond Negrucci, Augustus Hocker, Richard Dias, Mahlon Inman and Past Commander Tet Giminanni.

The Ladies Auxiliary extended an invitation to an adult Christmas Party on Dec. 21 to the Post Members. This will be held at the Post Home on South St. with no cost to the men except for their $1.00 exchange gift. Each Auxiliary member will bring a hot covered dish and decorations and entertainment will be in the hands of President Emily Dias, Past Pres. Venetta Snyder, Anna Hayes, Coral and Anna Bissonnette and Betty Curran. If you bring a gift — YOU'LL receive a gift. Let's all join in and have a nice party.

HELP-HELP-HELP. Soon cold weather will be upon us and although we all enjoy the snow and need it for a white Christmas, it may do us more harm than good. Snow (rain and winter) may ruin the lumber aside for our pavilion. THIS should be attended to NOW before we get SNOW. Let's all pitch in and help. If you men work on the pavilion the women will provide the HOT meal. We call this a fair deal so now let's make a date to work . . .

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Although the first monthly supper of Corned Beef and Cabbage on Oct. 12 wasn't as successful as we had hoped everyone loved the dinner. We will continue to have these dinners so keep your eye on this paper for the dates. Mrs. Dias thanks Venetta Snyder, Kartherine Dickinson and Anna Bissonnette for working that Saturday. We are still serving clams, shrimp, etc., every Friday night starting at 7 p. m. Come down and have some for only 99c and visit with old friends.

KEEP Dec. 14th open for a "Children's Christmas Party."

Assets Of Third National Bank Increase $9.6 Million

Assets of Third National Bank of Hampden County on September 30 were a record $190,990,153, an increase of more than $9.6 million over the assets figure of $181,371,593 on the same date a year ago, Russell B. Neff, president, reported today.

Mr. Neff also reported net operating income during the first three quarters was $1,460,381 or $2.56 per share on each of the 570,000 Third National shares outstanding. This is an earnings increase of 11.8 percent over the $1,304,899 and $2.29 per share in the first three quarters of 1967.

"We are very pleased with the earnings results for the first nine months of the year, and we are particularly pleased with our strong assets position of almost $191 million," Mr. Neff said. "The assets picture reflects the increased activity and growth of all departments and indicates that Third National Bank is playing a significant financial role in Hampden County."

"We have just opened our 17th office in the county, in Fairview, and will within the next few months open our first office in

TAKE BREAKS FOR SAFETY

BOSTON—Take the labor out of driving by taking frequent breaks, the Automobile Legal Association today urged motorists.

"Frequent breaks, perhaps a 10-minute rest stop every hour, would help keep drivers fresher and more alert," Gerard J. Gagnon, ALA's assistant safety director, said.

"Such steps will not only make the trip safer for the driver and his passengers but also more pleasurable," Gagnon said.

"Of course," he added, "we realize a man who is taking a long trip with his wife and children may find this suggestion unnecessary because he has to stop far more frequently than once an hour."

"Do you think your daddy will be laid up very long with his injured leg?"

"Yes, I think so. Compensation's set in."
